

THE PEOPLES' COLUMN

Permit me, a housewife who personally attends to the purchase of food for my family, to say that the best milk I have ever bought in Bryan has been from the "one cow dairy". I am always glad to buy my neighbor's surplus milk when I know that the milk is handled in a cleanly manner, and can feel fairly sure that the cow is in good condition. Not always, however, am I fortunate in being able to secure milk from such a neighbor and such a cow.

At such times I must take pot luck at the market, else go on the regular delivery list of a commercial dairy. It would be no small source of satisfaction at such time to have the assurance that a grade "A" or "B" label would give.

Any one cow dairy can meet the grade "A" and "B" competition by having the cow tuberculin tested and satisfying the neighbors that the stable is kept clean and utensils properly sterilized. No milk should be delivered from any dairy or home where there is an infectious disease. A town that permits such is guilty of criminal neglect, and to take such an advantage of one's neighbor would be wholly unchristian.

LITTLE AGGIES OF BRYAN HIGH EXPECTED TO GIVE WACO HIGH A TUSSLE FOR HONORS FRIDAY

By JINX TUCKER
In Waco News-Tribune

The Little Aggies of Bryan high are coming to Waco Friday determined to do something other Bryan teams have failed to do in the past—defeat the Waco high Tigers. The Bryan boys came dangerously near doing that very thing last year when the final period started with the Wacoans lagging behind a 7-to-6 score. This year the Bryan team is coached by Puny Wilson, All-Conference end at Aggie land for several years, and it is said to be a great defensive organization. Last week the Bryan team met and defeated Franklin by a score of 45 to 6. The week previous the Little Aggies trimmed Normangee by a score of 27 to 0. Defensively the team is just as strong as it was last year, and offensively it is much stronger, according to Bryan reports.

This should tend to indicate that the Tigers will be given rather a rigid test on the Cotton Palace gridiron Friday afternoon.

Bryan has a football squad of 45 men—unusual to say the least for a city the size of Bryan, and the Little Aggies have high hopes of capturing the title in their district. Caldwell may offer a shout of denial to this claim, however, but Bryan scouts speak confidently when they say that the Little Aggies are stronger than the veteran Hornet team.

In Dansby, the third and last of the family, which gave Bryan such brilliant stars as Norman Dansby and Mit Dansby, the Little Aggies have a 160-pound youngster who promises to eclipse the achievements of his two predecessors. Cloud is a rangy lad, exceptionally fast, weighing 158 pounds, and is expected to star against the Waco high team. Lloyd, 150-pound half-back, is the defensive star of the backfield men. Driver, a youngster of 155 pounds, is the capable quarterback. Bryan had no reserve strength of merit last year, and that is one reason why Waco hung up a decisive margin of supremacy in the final period. Such will not prove a handicap this year. Hanneman, Cummings, Cole, Locke and Palermo, are all backfield men of merit, who will be ready to go in at any time.

PHILADELPHIA NAMED LEGION MEETING PLACE

OMAHA, Oct. 7.—Philadelphia was unanimously selected for the 1926 American Legion National Convention city when the report of the time and place committee was ratified.

Julian Cobb, star center of the club, is also captain of the team, and is playing his third year. Robertson, 185 pounds, and Hamilton of last year's squad, are the regular guards. Vance, a 3-year man, is one tackle, while M. Hamilton is the other. Barrow, Cole, Martin, and Smith are the most promising candidates for the wing positions, and all will probably see service in Waco Friday.

It is a well-balanced team that Bryan will bring to Waco. It has weight, but not of the sluggish variety. The team is built for speed and it may show much speed in Waco Friday. Surely the club will be at the top of its form for the Little Aggies would rather defeat Waco high than win the interscholastic championship.

More than likely Coach Tyson will use two teams—again this week and may start the second-string club. He also expects to continue using the pass quite often.

SIX THOUSANDS DOLLAR LOSS BY FIRE AT BENCHLEY WHEN TOWLER HOME AND CONTENTS DESTROYED

The A. T. Towler home at Benchley, eight miles northwest of Bryan, was totally destroyed, together with contents, by a fire which started from an exploding lamp. The fire started at about 6 o'clock and it raged for an hour or more, causing quite a crowd of rural people to collect at the scene. The loss is estimated at $5,000 or $6,000, with no insurance, as the policy had lapsed last December and the owners being out of the State had neglected to have it renewed. The lamp exploded in the hands of Mrs. Towler and her hand and arm were quite badly burned. Mr. and Mrs. Towler have been living for the past year or so at Norfolk, Arkansas, the house having been occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Ray Haltom. Since the Haltoms moved out yesterday, Mrs. Towler had come up from Houston to visit her mother at Hearne. The train Sunday being delayed on account of the wreck in Bryan, she arrived here late. She had gone over from Hearne to the house at Benchley to fit it up and make it habitable for new tenants.

"BUY IT IN BRYAN" IS STRESSED TO LIONS CLUB

At the opening of the regular Tuesday session of the Lions Club of Bryan, and following the usual singing and luncheon, Lion F. D. Fuller reported on his whereabouts last week at the same hour. He said that he and a party of eight were driving from Kansas City to Topeka and drove in to Atchison at noon. He said that he was standing in the hotel office when a stranger approached him and said that he had noticed the Lion pin, therefore wished to invite him to the luncheon meeting at that hour. Lion Fuller said that he could not thank his Lion emblem for the fine feed and for the pleasant hour with 40 live wire business men of Atchison, Kansas. He urged upon all members the purchase of Lion emblems, which matter was argued further by the rest of the members in attendance. It was then announced that the program for next Tuesday would be an interesting one with a male quartet to be brought from College by Lion Brown, and the principal address to be made by Coach Anderson of the athletic department of the college. Then Captain Aldridge of the military unit at College explained the R. O. T. C organization in general and took up specifically the equipment, the course of study, etc., as pertains to the A. and M.

CHIEF OF BUREAU AERONAUTICS RECOMMENDS CONSTRUCTION OF NEW SHIP REPLACE SHENANDOAH

(By Associated Press). WASHINGTON, Oct. 7.—Rear Admiral William Moffet, chief of the Naval Bureau of Aeronautics, told the President's Air Board today that the "Shenandoah" should be replaced with a rigid airship, built in the United States, and of at least six million cubic feet capacity, compared with the two 2,115,000 cubic feet capacity of the wrecked ship. He took issue with Colonel William Mitchell, who declared that the bungling by the Navy had caused the failure of the "Shenandoah," the Hawaiian, and the North Pole projects, in which Navy aircraft participated.

College of Texas and its branches. His talk was quite interesting to the members present, though somewhat technical. He stated that the A. and M. unit was the largest and one of the most efficient ones in the entire land. He was followed by an entertainer, Mrs. Stephens, who put the audience in a royal good humor. As she had been on the program at the district convention at Brownwood, she told some stories on the local attendants that brought much laughter and then gave a reading and responded to repeated pleas for an encore. She is a real entertainer, full of life and energy and at utmost ease before an audience. Secretary S. E. Eberstadt closed the day's program with a discussion of Bryan's plans for handling the advertising and other solicitors, explaining in detail the secret committee of the Chamber of Commerce, of which he is the chairman and "the goat," showing how it worked in offering recommendations only to those who had the proper credentials and whose projects were worthy and of merit. He told of a number of instances wherein Bryan people had been hood-winked and swindled of large sums of money by fake solicitors and showed how the Chamber of Commerce was saving its members.

FOOT AND MOUTH DISEASE

A specialist from the United States Public Health Service and a veterinarian, who was in Bryan recently, stated before an audience in reply to a question, that the foot and mouth disease could be transferred from cattle to human beings. It is a disease which in both the hoof of the cow and the mouth of the animal are infected and some say that the cow's tongue eventually rots out, or is destroyed by the infection.

The manner in which the disease would work on people is not known to this section, but likely in a similar manner as regards the mouth. Dr. Smith, who made the statement regarding transfer to human beings, said that it could be caught from milk, which is but another reason why we should be especially careful about the milk we drink and an argument in favor of the standard milk-grading ordinance.

Grimes county is in the quarantine area, though no infections have as yet been located there. With the quarantine section so close to us, and a vigilance maintained to see that any outbreaks that might possibly occur this far north of the Houston area be stamped out with no spread. It would be a bad thing for an outbreak to occur but doubly hard for one to be here and either not be discovered or to be suppressed.

COURTESY PRICELESS ASSET

Smile and the world smiles with you. Any person who meets the world with a friendly smile, praises that world better and perpetuates his place in the hearts and minds of the men with whom he comes in contact. What is true of the individual is also true of the community, town and city. Now that football season is on and thousands of visitors are brought within our gates Bryan will have abundant opportunity to demonstrate this priceless asset of selling Bryan through the friendly smile and "glad hand" of welcome. Courtesy costs nothing but a little effort on our part but the benefit accruing to us as individuals and as a community through the medium of simple cordiality cannot be estimated. Let us profit by the pardonable pride and satisfaction we feel because of our friendly reception to all visitors who have come to Bryan in the past and from day to day be more and more zealous to instantly extend the glad hand whenever the occasion arises for doing so.

FORTIETH ANNIVERSARY

Issue No. 1, of volume 41 of the Dallas Morning News is off the press and in the hands of its readers. It is the 40th anniversary edition of this publication and is a splendid demonstration of the success of one of the South's largest and best publications. There are 66 pages, all as good as the usual pages of the fine paper are, there being four sections to complete the issue. Two striking things are found in the copy, one the editorial of 1885 which laid out the policy of the paper and which has been religiously followed since that early day, testifying to the wisdom of the management then and through these long years. The other is the business directory of Dallas which should be an invaluable aid to the News readers in the Dallas trade territory. The Eagle congratulates the News upon its 40th anniversary and hopes that they will enjoy many more years of prosperity and success, serving the people of Dallas and the South with a policy of progressive-ness, tempered with wise conservatism.

Large Crowd Attended At Steele's Store

Nearly a score of Bryan people motored down to Steele's Store on Friday night to attend the first regularly scheduled meeting of the newly-organized community club. The meeting was held in the auditorium of the new consolidated school building and the room was packed with people from the local community. Principal C. H. Van Burkleo opened the meeting and announced the program that had been arranged under the direction of the teachers of the school. The first number was a "Welcome Song" to greet the people present, especially the visitors from without the community. Then the presiding officer explained to the audience the poem "The Pied Piper of Hamelin" and the story was well dramatized by the local school children.

Rotary Takes Charge.
A fine rendition of "America" closed the local talent's program, the final stanza being sung as a prayer with bowed heads and folded hands. Van Burkleo then introduced County Agent C. L. Beason who first put on a cracker eating contest, with Mrs. Nelle Williamson and Dr. E. P. Humbert as judges. It was a close contest but one of the local boys won and Dr. Humbert awarded the prize, a big barber-pole of stick candy.

Mr. Beason then introduced Rotary Chapter Jno. W. Black who took charge for about 30 minutes. He called all the Rotarians present to the platform and introduced them in a humorous fashion. Then, lead by Rotarians Humbert and Black, with Miss Ruby Boris-ke of the Bryan Eagle at the piano, a number of Rotary songs were sung.

Dr. Humbert then made a short talk commending the Steele's Store people for their wonderful progress and for the fine consolidated district and splendid new school house, paying particular stress to the voting of the bonds without a dissenting vote. He also expressed, on behalf of the visitors, his appreciation of the evening's entertainment and thankfulness for having been present.

A Splendid Talk.
H. H. Williamson next made a short but splendid talk on "The Community Index", using a book and its index to illustrate the fact that the children of today are the index to the men and women of tomorrow; that it was up to the boys and girls who were present on that evening to do their part to make the present generation left it and carry Steele's Store on to bigger, higher and better things.

I. E. Warren was the closing speaker and he told of his gratification at seeing so many present that he knew and praised the community for its progressive step in the organization of the community club.

During the course of the evening readings were given by: J. W. Payne, Miss Alice Reigle and H. D. Cuykendall of the Bryan Eagle. On suggestion, a nominating committee was appointed to select a list of officers to be elected at the next meeting of the community club on the first Friday night in November.

At the close of the meeting the people of the community, with the school faculty serving, passed ice cold lemonade and cake.

Among those present from Bryan were: Dr. Jno. W. Black, I. E. Warren, Dr. E. P. Humbert, H. H. Williamson, W. E. Farmer, S. E. Eberstadt, C. L. Beason, Chas. Hillier, H. D. Cuykendall of the Bryan Eagle, J. W. Payne, Miss Alice Reigle, Mrs. Nelle Williamson, and Miss Ruby Boris-ke of the Bryan Eagle.

Fire Truck Thru Little Bridge On Sunday Afternoon

It is the custom of the Bryan Fire Department for the truck driver to take the truck out each Sunday afternoon, warm it up, and see if it is running well. Harry Berger took it out yesterday and while driving across the little bridge over the draw, just east of the S. P. tracks, on the street that runs in front of the Western Public Service Company, the truck dropped through the bridge. The truck was gotten out of its predicament about 9 o'clock, having gotten in about 5:30. It was none the worse for the incident but the bridge was in bad shape and strong repairs.

STRONG-WILSON WED.

Delphian Society Began Third Year Of Work On Friday

Members of the Bryan Delphian Chapter began their third year of work Friday afternoon. The subject of the day's program was "The Function of Art and the Gates of Art Appreciation."

The president, Mrs. W. S. Howell, opened the meeting with a brief outline of her plans for the year, and a plea for interest and co-operation to the end that all may receive the greatest good for the year's study.

Mrs. G. L. Crawford, as leader of the day spoke of the "Qualities of Art and the Elements of Visual Art." Mrs. David Reid gave the topic on "Composition" Mrs. George Eisert, "Art as the Expression of the Spirit of the Age," and Mrs. Henry Moehlman, "Architecture." Following the program members spoke informally of what interested them most in various masterpieces of art they had enjoyed.

To avoid conflict with the football games the next meetings will be held on Saturday following the regular date. Mrs. Thos. Lundin will lead the next program on October 17th, subject, "Trabected Architecture, Pagan Art and Architecture."

This year's work, based on the "History of Art," promises to be most interesting, and all members are urged to attend regularly.

High School Notes

The orchestra and Choral Club held its first meeting of the year under the direction of Mrs. Roy Danforth. The outlook for music in the high school this year is very good. The grades, five, six and seven, that are doing departmental work, will also take singing regularly under the direction of Mrs. Ruby Butler.

Other clubs that are being organized are the Forestry Club, Mr. Sublette, director; Home Economics Club, Miss Helen Racey, director; Science Club, Mr. Baltzell and Miss Louise Cline, directors; Athletic Club, Mr. Vaughn, director; "High Y" Club, Mr. Cox, director; Bryan Citizenship Club, Miss Riegle, director; the Civic Club, Mr. Sloop and Miss Lucy Harrison, directors; Foreign Language Club, Miss Weddington and Miss Hyman, directors.

The new section of the first grade that is just beginning at the East Side School, under the capable direction of Miss Lloyd, is rapidly filling up. There are only a few more vacant seats now. Those who are eligible to enter can do so in the next few days only. After the work gets well started no more will be taken until next year.

In the East Side Elementary School there are now eleven teachers in charge of seven grades. For the first time in many years no room is overcrowded. Every room in the building is comfortably filled. Not one room is vacant or overcrowded. The entire school plant is now running up to capacity.

The work in the Manual Training Department seems to be getting along unusually well. Mr. Sublette is well qualified by training, experience and by temperament for this work.

The Bryan City Schools will observe next week, "Fire Prevention Week." On Monday, Wednesday and Friday programs will be held in the schools at 10:05 a. m. Speakers will be present from the Lions Club, the Rotary Club, and from the Chamber of Commerce.

The following are among those composing the high school orchestra: Bennie Nedbalek, Louis Nedbalek, Frank Nedbalek, Bryce Van Burkleo, George H. Smith, C. B. Moehlman, Clyde Bowman, Charles Green, Harry Dishman. The orchestra needs a bass drum.

The sincere sympathy of many friends goes out to Mr. Worden and family in this hour of trouble.

Funeral Services For Mrs. Holland Wednesday Morn

(From Tuesday's Daily)

The sad news of the sudden death of Mrs. Mattie Barron Holland, wife of Enoch B. Holland, at the family home in Lubbock, Texas, Monday, October 5, 1925, at 12 o'clock noon, cast a gloom over the hearts of many friends in this city, where they formerly resided. Only eight weeks ago, Mr. and Mrs. Holland left Bryan for their new home in Lubbock, and only one week ago, Mrs. Holland returned to Lubbock after being in Bryan at the bedside of her sister, Mrs. Thelma Barron Dowling, who died in this city, September 19th. The crushing sadness which the message of her untimely death brought to the hearts of her relatives and friends cannot be expressed. Young and in the prime of life, she was snatched away from earth to Heaven.

Mrs. Mattie Barron Holland was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Barron of Rock Prairie, Brazos county, and was born there, July 1, 1894. In September 1911, she was married to Enoch B. Holland, also of Brazos county, and they have made their home in Bryan until only a few weeks ago, as above stated. Deceased was of quiet, lovable disposition, a friend to all, and beloved by all who knew her. A Christian, and living daily the faith she professed, her life was an example to all with whom she came in contact. No children were born into the home, and her life companion is left alone. Surviving also are, her father, P. L. Barron; two sisters, Mrs. Hugh Dowling of Bryan and Mrs. Willard Dowling of Houston, and four brothers, Beatty, P. L. Jr., Rupert and Roubie Barron, all of Brazos county.

The body will reach Bryan tonight, and the funeral will be held at 10 o'clock, Wednesday morning at old Bethel cemetery. The procession will leave the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Dowling on South Washington avenue, Wednesday morning at 9:30 o'clock. Rev. R. L. Brown will conduct the funeral services at the grave.

Report of The M. E. District Institute

(By Mabel Zimmerman).

Promptly at 10:00 o'clock on Friday morning a representative group of Sunday School workers in the Navasota District assembled at the First Methodist church to avail themselves of the exceptional opportunity of hearing the following representatives of the General Sunday School Board: Miss Marie Parham, Rev. O. S. Gates and Rev. Clem Baker, who had been employed to bring to those in attendance the ideas and methods based on principles that have been proved in the testing of years of experience. Each one being thoroughly acquainted with the whole program of Sunday School work and some of them specialists in specific line of work.

L. F. Sensabaugh, general director of Teacher-Training, of Nashville, Tenn., who was scheduled to bring several messages on "Leadership Training" was unable to attend, a fact concerning which considerable regret was expressed.

The devotional exercises were led by the Presiding Elder Rev. D. H. Hotchkiss, after which Rev. F. D. Dawson, Texas Conference Sunday School Superintendent discussed "The Conference Program", briefly outlining some of the objectives for the work. He then introduced Rev. Clem Baker of Little Rock, Arkansas, who ably discussed in a most instructive manner the following phases of Sunday School work: "Sunday School Administration", "Leadership Training", "Missionary Education", "Home and Foreign Missionary Extension", "Week-Day Religious Education", "Home Parent-Teachers' Work".

Then, Miss Marie Parham of Nashville, Tennessee, held an open conference on Elementary Work. In an informal manner,

Rev. Ferguson Is Heard In Sermons At Baptist Church

Rev. M. L. Ferguson, who recently returned from Chicago University where he has been doing special work during the past year, preached at the First Baptist church in Bryan Sunday at both the morning and evening services. At the morning hour, a special program had been arranged, and the congregation heard with much pleasure and pride a solo by George Griffin, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. G. Griffin of this city, who is studying this year in Houston. His voice gives great promise and his song on Sunday morning was especially well rendered. Rev. Ferguson preached two good gospel sermons, and the congregation was delighted with both the morning and evening services.

INFANT SON OF MR. AND MRS. ROBERT ARMSTRONG QUITE ILL AT HOUSTON

Robert Ewing Armstrong, the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. R. V. Armstrong, was taken very ill Saturday night and after consultation with the local family physician, it was decided to be advisable to rush the boy to the Baptist Sanitarium in Houston for special treatment. Mr. and Mrs. R. V. Armstrong, with Robert Ewing Armstrong, accompanied by the family physicians, Dr. C. A. Searcy and Dr. L. O. Wilkerson, motored to Houston immediately after the decision was made.

Mrs. Robert Ewing, the mother of Mr. Armstrong, joined the party in Navasota.

Drs. Searcy and Wilkerson returned to Hempstead yesterday morning, where they performed an operation on Frank Wilson, then returned to Bryan late yesterday afternoon. They report that when they left Houston the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Armstrong was resting well.

asking and answering questions in order to definitely bring a realization of needs and also how to meet the needs in this special phase of the work. She also presented "Children's Week" and urged all Sunday School superintendents and pastors to observe this sometime during the month of October. She expressed many truths concerning the value of religious development from the standpoint of the child and closed her address with a most beautiful tribute to those who endeavor to train and develop childhood, shaping character and destiny.

Rev. O. S. Gates was the next on the program, discussing "Work with Adolescents". He showed unusual ability in handling this phase of the work and it would have been well had the auditorium been filled with young people between the ages of 12 to 24. He said that the young people had obtained the idea that the church was not interested in them as young people, and that commercialized institutions were; consequently they felt that they should avail themselves of the opportunities presented by those institutions which more readily and more ably met their needs. Also he made mention of the fact that everywhere the "Adolescent" was neglected in church and Sunday School work, scarcely any workers of importance could be enlisted to work with young people of this age. More especially, did he emphasize the fact that the "Adolescent" wanted to do something and not continually have things done for him.

At the noon hour a lunch of barbecue, salads, pickles, potato chips, rolls, coffee and ice cream and cake was served to all in attendance, after which they assembled in group meetings for special study of problems pertaining

HARMONY REIGNS IN BRAZOS

Young men who thought it fun to tease foreigners, not versed in the American language or familiar with American customs, precipitated a tragedy at Taylor, Texas, which resulted in the death of three persons and serious wounding of several others. Whence came the inspiration for this "hitting" of foreigners is not disclosed, but it is encouraging to note that the gravity of the affair has stirred censure and condemnation in circles which are addicted to aspersing "aliens".

The Bryan Eagle published in a klan-ridden community has printed one of the most condemnatory editorials that have appeared. The Eagle, among other things, says: "The 'fun' that the town boys of Taylor had at the expense of two foreigners caused them to pay dearly, one with his life. What profit can there be in that form of so-called 'fun'? Tormenting others is not 'liberty' but rather is 'taking liberty' that is unwarranted." Which indicates that after all respect for rights of others is a good American doctrine and practice.—Ferguson Forum.

Friend Lunsford, it is well that you did not capitalize the word "Klan". We do have klans in Brazos county, if you would so designate the element of foreign descent or foreigners who have adopted this country as their native land. Within the borders of this small domain known as Brazos county we can find the combined negro and foreign element in the majority over the native white American. Among the foreign peoples are: Germans, Italians, Bohemians, Poles, Jews, Greeks, Spaniards, Mexicans, Syrians, Slavonians, and many of the black race whose original home was in Africa.

Yet we live together in as near a perfect peace and harmony as exists in any Texas county and with less friction than can be found in many places. Brazos county is proud of the accomplishment.

W. S. Bizzell to Wed Miss Hocker Of Clarksville

Enclosed cards read: "Reception immediately following the ceremony, two hundred and thirty-four Main St."

to different ages. Miss Marie Parham, directing the Elementary Group; Rev. O. S. Gates, the Adolescent Group and Rev. Clem Baker, the Administrative Group.

At the conclusion of the group meetings, announcements were made and resolutions passed in regard to entertainment by the local people and appreciation of the workers, after which the meeting adjourned until 7:30 p. m.

At the evening session Rev. F. D. Davidson of Jacksonville and Rev. O. S. Gates of Nashville, Tennessee, filled the program.

Rev. Dawson with an introductory devotional gave emphasis to the fact that present day opportunities should not be disparaged; that people should not be compared to the old days were the better days. An optimistic view should be taken, and with earnest co-operation all should strive to attain a still greater goal than we have reached and endeavor to offset such prevalent ideas as the above mentioned.

Rev. Gates chose for scripture reading a part of the fourth of St. Luke, stressing especially the 43rd verse, "And he said unto them I must preach the kingdom of God to other cities also; for therefore am I sent." This he expressed as being the object of Jesus' coming into the world, viz.—to preach the "gospel of the kingdom of God", all other things merely being supplementary to this in obtaining a program for Christian religion as a working basis through all the ages. After discussing this at length, he launched into his subject of "Leadership", saying that no church was stronger than its leaders, and that all efforts expended brought results just in proportion as the leaders took the initiative and worked out plans for

Down at Steele's Store, one of the largest—if not the largest—Italian settlements in all Texas, and perhaps the wealthiest, there is a consolidation of school districts and a new schoolhouse of four rooms downstairs and an auditorium upstairs. The bonds for this new building were voted a year or more ago without a single dissenting vote. Can you match the achievement?

Just two weeks ago there was organized at Steele's Store a community club which meets now regularly on the first Friday night of each month, and the eve of the day on which this article is written will see the second gathering of this club when the Bryan Rotary and Lions Clubs, a few members of the K. of P. Lodge and of the Knights of Columbus, the County Agents, the elocution teacher at the high school and representatives of the daily newspaper will all be on hand, not only to witness the splendid meeting that is in prospect, but to take a part on the program there and assist the local talent from the school rooms and the farm homes. At the last meeting a 12-year-old boy told of a trip he won last year to the Dallas Fair and his experiences there. He talked freely before a crowd of people present at the meeting.

If the Forum had had a representative present at Brazos County Day at the A. and M. College Short Course last year they would have noted that the two communities having the greatest attendance were Steele's Store and Kurten, the former almost solidly Italian and the latter equally as solid German. Kurten also recently won first place in attendance at the first annual county-wide free agricultural fair, when W. S. Howell furnished $500 in prizes, with 428 people present from that one community. And by the way, Kurten has a fine school building and a new auditorium that will seat 800 or 900 people, with inclined floor and a stage with dressing rooms and of ample size

J. A. Paradowski Home Furlough From the Navy

John A. Paradowski, aviation machinist's mate, first class, U. S. Navy, from the U. S. S. Pennsylvania, arrived in Bryan on the noon train Sunday, very much surprised his relatives and friends. He will visit in Bryan and at Marlin while on furlough. The Pennsylvania is one of the battleships that made the cruise to the Hawaiian Islands, Samoa Islands, Australia, and New Zealand, returning on September 26th, to San Pedro Harbor, where she is stationed at present.

general personnel of the church to bring to materialization. He emphasized the fact that the youth of today constituted the material for leadership. Youth is the only element that can face a problem and out of its unencumbered life solve it honestly and justly from an unbiased standpoint. Youth is free and in that freedom is not hampered by traditions, neither is it encumbered by being wedded to anything. Youth sees the problem in the right attitude and solves it from the standpoint of present day methods.

In conclusion he told of the church convention for young people of the M. E. Church, South—ages ranging from 16 to 30 years—to be held in Memphis, Tennessee, January 1, 2, 3, 1926, under the auspices of the six general boards of the M. E. Church, South. For the first time in the history of the church that the young people will gather at a church convention—that is one which will be designated that way instead of an Epworth League Convention or a Missionary Society conference. A church convention for representatives of the M. E. Church, South.

He urged that the Navasota District send delegates who would be the best from the standpoint of helping to induce the ideas obtained and give out the inspiration received from the leaders who would be in attendance.

At the close of this address, Rev. Dawson spoke briefly concerning the advisability of having a Standard Training Course in the Navasota District, saying that the presiding elder and the district superintendent of training work would take up the matter later with the S. S. superintendents of the district.

The benediction was pronounced by Rev. D. H. Hotchkiss.

to accommodate any ordinary productions. Two of the Kurten boys have won trips in Chicago in boys' club work.

The Knight of Columbus gave a big barbecue dinner on Labor Day, near Bryan, and the receipts were over $500, and in attendance could be found every class and nativity of people in the county, and perhaps there were some klansmen, too—with a capital "K". The funds from this barbecue were given to the construction fund of the St. Joseph's Catholic Parochial school in Bryan.

The Bryan Daily Eagle is not a factional nor a partisan newspaper, and its ambition is to print all the news from all sections about all people with malice toward none, and with justice to all. Only recently a representative of the Eagle made a 10-mile trip to Smetana, a foreign settlement, to attend a festivity given following an Italian wedding, and printed a half-column story about the wedding. Several Americans—as you might call them—were in attendance.

There might be many other instances that we could cite to you to show that the state need not fear the condition in Brazos county. There may be a Klan—capital "K"—in this county. We do not know. But at any rate we are all Americans, either by nativity or adoption and Brazos county, with its large foreign element in general law-abiding and appreciates the necessity of keeping the section free from vice in justice not only to law but to the parents of thousands of children who attend the schools in our midst, over 1,000 in the public schools, over 2,000 in A. and M. College, 300 in Allen Military Academy and a large number of girls in Villa Maria Catholic Convent. It also possesses a newspaper that has an ideal of serving its people—all its people whatever be their nativity or denomination—and with praise for all that is worthwhile and condemnation for that which is not.

QUITE A NUMBER FROM BRYAN PRESENT AT BRAZOS MEETING RECENTLY AT WICHITA FALLS

At a special conference of representatives from the Brazos River Watershed at the meeting of the State Conservation Association held in Wichita Falls, September 25 and 26, the following were present: R. Chas. Hamilton, Benjamin; A. B. Sams, Benjamin; Chas. Moorhouse, Benjamin; J. H. Atterbury, Benjamin; E. Duval, Munday; A. D. Jackson, College Station; L. Tillotson, Sealy; W. C. Moore, Wichita Falls; Geo. G. Chance, Bryan; Joe Reid, Hearne; J. Earl Porter, Caldwell; Geo. M. Holland, Bryan; H. C. Seale, Bryan; John M. Chamberlain, Mineral Wells; C. E. Ellsworth, U. S. G. S., Austin; John R. Norris, Chairman, Board of Water Engineers, Austin; D. Seaton, College Station; M. R. Bentley, Bryan; R. W. Barnes, Southern Pacific Lines, Houston; J. J. Richey, College Station and John D. Rogers, Navasota. The conference was held in the Kemp Hotel from 9 to 11 Friday night with Hon. Leonard Tillotson presiding. The Knox county delegation had just come from a convention at Seymour where agreement had been reached that day to establish a district to finance a large impounding dam for irrigation purposes near Seymour. The Mineral Wells representatives said that Mineral Wells had two available sites either of which is available to impound more irrigation water than will be needed in that section and that it is the intention of that community to build their dam only so high as needed to serve that locality unless others along the stream will join in the enterprise and develop one or both dams to full capacity. Reports of the engineers indicated that more than four millions acre feet can be impounded practically at a point about 7 miles northwest of Mineral Wells, and that such a lake would be the largest artificial lake in North America. Waco representatives did not attend the Brazos River conference as they said their project contemplates principally city water supplies for Waco and only a small amount of irrigation. The representatives from Robertson, Burleson, Brazos, Grimes and Austin counties indicated that they would be glad to see unit action all along the Brazos watershed. This idea met the approval of all present and a resolution was passed asking the President and Secretary of the Brazos River Reclamation Association to take the matter up with all sections of the watershed looking to the perfection of an association that will receive support from all sections and can ascertain the wishes of all with reference to needed action.

Desirable legislation was discussed at length but definite action was deferred pending later meetings which it was considered should be held at numerous points throughout the watershed. The desire was also expressed that the State association hold as many meetings as possible in the Brazos area.

Attending the State meet from Bryan and vicinity were: John D. Rogers, of Navasota; George P. Chance of Bryan; Joe Reid of Hearne; J. Earl Porter of Caldwell; Geo. M. Holland of Bryan; L. Tillotson of Sealy; C. C. Shear, Waco; H. C. Seale, Bryan; M. R. Bentley, Bryan; D. Seaton, College Station; and A. D. Jackson, secretary, Brazos River Reclamation Association, College Station.

Horse Backed A Vehicle Over Side of Bridge

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Wiese, an aged couple living on a farm near North Zulch, happened to an accident on Saturday morning which they were painfully and critically injured. They were driving in a horse and buggy from their home to Kurten, about 8 miles from their home and about the same distance in the northeasterly direction from Bryan, to visit friends there. As they were crossing the Democrat crossing on the Navasota river, the horse became frightened at holes in the bridge and backed the buggy off the bridge, the buggy and horse and the occupants of the vehicle all dropping about 8 or 9 feet to the ground. Both were badly cut and bruised and neither were able to walk. Passersby placed them in a passing car and they were taken to their home at North Zulch, according to Hugo Endler of Kurten, who recounted the incident to an Eagle reporter. Mr. Wiese had several bad cuts about the head and was bleeding quite profusely. Mrs. Wiese was less seriously hurt, though internal injuries might later develop. The advanced age of both the couple makes the accident more serious than it might otherwise be.

It is often easier to prevent a fire than to put one out."

A. S. McSwain, representing the Bryan Rotary Club, presented to the students a framed motto of Code of Ethics for school students. This motto will hang in the hallway and serve as a reminder each day for good behavior and morals on the part of the students. These programs will be observed each morning during the week.

MRS. ALBERT J. BUCHANAN IN CHARGE KURTEN COMMUNITY CLUB MEETING SATURDAY NIGHT

Kurten Community Club held its monthly program meeting on Saturday night at the Kurten school house with a good attendance. W. H. Buchanan, president of the club, welcomed the visitors, and told of the pleasure it always gives the people of Kurten to have friends from Bryan and the other communities over the county meet with them. The fact that Kurten won the prize at the Howell Agricultural Fair for the great community attendance, was spoken of by President Buchanan with pride, and the fifty dollar check voted to be paid on the debt due for the splendid new piano, recently placed in the school. W. S. Howell and S. E. Eberstadt were present from Bryan and when requested made a few remarks which were appreciated by all present. Mrs. Albert Buchanan of Bryan had charge of the program for the occasion, and after a few opening remarks called the following numbers, each of which met with continued applause and encores given.

(By Associated Press)
HOUSTON, Oct. 5.—The 23 victims of the Sunday crash between two Houston & Texas Central passenger trains in the yards at Bryan are reported rapidly improving today. None were seriously injured. Confused train orders is given as the cause of the wreck.

Approximately 30 people, 23 of whom were white, were more or less injured in a head on collision of train No. 13, northbound "Sunbeam," and train No. 16, southbound afternoon passenger in the yards of this city at 2:51 o'clock Sunday afternoon. The injured were rushed to the Bryan Hospital for treatment, and repair work started to make the trains ready to continue the schedule. The pilots of both engines were badly damaged and the headlights also. A special engine came through from Hearne and took the regular passenger train on to Houston and the "Sunbeam," also with the aid of a special engine, pulled out later in the evening. None of the injured are in a serious condition and there were but few bone fractures. Bruises, bumps and cuts were the major ailments.

The only Bryan people on the train, as far as the Eagle has been able to learn, were: Mrs. Jno. A. Crockett and baby who were returning from a visit to Ft. Worth. Steinberger, who works at the New York Cafe in Bryan, who was only bruised; and Mrs. Steinberger, who had some of the teeth of her lower jaw loosened.

Sixteen members answered to roll call, giving items of church news. It was stressed that we send a delegate to the young people's convention that meets at Memphis, Tennessee in January. The quarterly reports were given and showed excellent work in all departments.

The matter was referred to J. Bryan Miller to handle same in conjunction with the college authorities.

So Weak Couldn't Stand

"My wife's health broke down and for years she was just a physical wreck," says Mr. Thomas Glynn, of Gibson, La. "We did everything we knew, yet she seemed to get worse and worse. She was so weak till she couldn't stand, and had to be carried like a baby. It looked like nothing would save her that had been done."

CARDUI For Female Troubles

"I knew that Cardui was for women. I decided to try it for her as all else had failed. She couldn't eat, she couldn't sleep, and I was desperate. After taking a few doses of Cardui, we were so glad to note that she wanted something to eat, and with each bit of nourishment, she grew stronger and got up out of bed. She is now able to cook, and stronger than in a long time."

Club Notes and Farm News by County Agent C. L. Beason

Half and Half Cotton.

The Smith County Agricultural Council, of which Judge J. W. Fitzgerald is chairman, has among some of its important objectives for the betterment of agriculture in that progressive county, terracing, sowing of oats, rye and vetch as cover crops and for winter grazing and early feed, urging farmers to get away from half-and-half cotton, on account of which that county and many other East Texas counties are said to be penalized, and lending co-operation in the marketing of farm products. It has been only a short time ago since attention was called to the fact that a cotton buyer was leaving a certain East Texas town because of the poor quality of cotton offered for sale in that particular place. When such a condition as this obtains, both business men and farmers are to blame; the business man is to blame for not discouraging the farmer in the production of a product that will bring, sooner or later, disaster on the market town, and the farmer is to blame for being a party in the production of a product that the trade shuns. Of course, if there is no danger, then pull the "throttle" open and make time.

Alford Props Door Open.

Director Alvord of the Extension Service stated at a recent luncheon of the Lions Club that he meant to prop the door to his office open so all might see him when they desired to do so. In other words, Director Alvord wants the humblest person to feel that the "latch string" to his office is on the outside.

Better Joultry Flocks.

If we are to take advantage of the opportunity to have a few demonstrations in building up accredited flocks of poultry in Brazos county, our poultry raisers had better manifest an interest in this matter right away. This work will be undertaken in only a few counties, and it is planned to have it begin in November of this year. If interested, ask your County Agent, or your Home Demonstration Agent concerning the work.

Keep Check On Farm.

Dr. J. N. Harper of the Southern Soil Improvement Association, in speaking at the A. and M. Short Course, said that if he had a million dollars he would spend a lot of it in trying to get farmers to keep check of their farming enterprises, the production of corn, cotton, livestock, etc. Dr. Harper evidently believes that the farmer who keeps check of his work will more likely be able to write a check for the things he needs to buy away from the farm.

Onance of Prevention.

J. J. Riley of the Reliance community is very anxious for the County Agent to come back to his farm and recheck terrace lines before rebuilding terraces, or before making them stronger for the winter rains. Mr. Riley is looking ahead, realizing full well that a terrace should break it would result in much damage and loss of soil fertility. Now is the time to look over old terraces to strengthen and rebuild them to stand heavy rains. A little work done now may mean more than a great deal of work done after the rains have cut to pieces your fields. Remember, terraces built 2 feet high and 20 feet wide and not too far apart will hold much water and lay the foundation for a more productive soil. Ask scores who have tried it out. "For the land's sake," act now.

Howell On Diversification.

J. Webb Howell, president of the Bryan Cotton Oil Mill, might be considered, from the position he occupies, as a booster for cotton production only, but the facts are quite to the contrary, as evidenced by his advocacy of more and better poultry and more and better dairy cows, and the growing of feed stuffs other than corn in Brazos county. Mr. Howell thinks we can never get anywhere just trying to raise cotton alone, especially till our land in Brazos county has regained some of its lost fertility.

Increase Yield for Profits.

It is said that in 1924 the cost of cotton production ran from 7 cents a pound, where the production was 500 pounds or more of lint per acre, to 51 cents where the yield was 60 pounds or less per acre. This ought to show that by increased acre yields our profits can be increased.

Young Men Are Building.

In deploping the away-from-the-farm movement we oftentimes overlook such college-bred boys as Aubrey Moore, Fred Herring, Ward Mooring, and other young men who are playing a conspicuous part in a better agriculture. Aubrey Moore, the son of Commissioner John M. Moore, is taking an active part in helping his father build up the soil, improve the farm buildings, and improve the livestock. Fred Herring, nephew of Mrs. Johnnie Koppe, is planning big things for his own farm and at the same time assisting his aunt with her large farming interests. Ward Mooring, one of the best farmers and most successful business men in Texas, has taken charge of his father's old Brazos Valley plantation, comprising several thousand acres, and is giving his best thought and attention to the further development of this great farm, whose possibilities are now enhanced by virtue of the wonderful artesian well spouting millions of gallons of water which may be used for irrigation purposes in dry seasons. Keep your eye on these young men and you will observe that they will not only render a distinct service to agriculture, but in the years to come they will be living "off the fat of the land".

Turn Under Vegetation.

It bespeaks better crop production to hear farmers say they are making preparation to turn under the heavy crop of vegetation brought up by the recent showers. If it is desired to keep some of this grass for fall grazing, then the part which is turned under ought to enable you to get a check of just what is accomplished by such practice.

Read "Facts About Hens".

Did you read in Farm and Ranch "Facts About Hens," by W. E. Stanfield in the Dakota Farmer? Most of the suggestions are easy to follow and would prove very helpful to every poultryman desiring to improve his flock.

Brazos County Won Prizes.

D. P. Blankenship of Wellborn and W. T. Conaway of Reliance attended the Calvert poultry show on last Saturday and "swiped" every ribbon and prize offered for S. C. Rhode Island Reds. Every time Brazos county poultry is shown in competition with other poultry, Brazos county wins, and yet we are just getting started in a wonderful enterprise. Help put Brazos county first.

Leave for Fair On 12th.

All club boys winning trips to the Dallas Fair will leave Bryan October 12th, at "high noon".

Mr. Smith and son, Edward, were going to Grimes county Saturday, and witnessed a serious accident at the main bridge on the Navasota river. Mr. Weiser and wife were driving a horse and buggy on the bridge. There was a great hole across the bridge which the horse saw. He scared and jumped, throwing the buggy into the river below. They were both injured, but not fatally. The buggy was torn all to pieces. This accident shows that bridges should be repaired and that some official must be negligent of their duties.

Esther Lowe was absent from school last week and Cecil Rosier this week on account of sickness.

Bryan Cemetery

(From Friday's Daily)

Funeral services were held this morning, both at the home and at St. Joseph's Catholic church, conducted by Rev. Father J. B. Gleissner, for Wm. C. Buckman, who died on Thursday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock. Burial was in the Bryan Catholic Cemetery, following the services. The pall bearers were: Tom Daly, M. Bonnevill, H. B. McDowell, Jno. O'Connor, I. E. Warren and Matt Vitopil.

In the death of Prof. Buckman, this section loses one of its ablest business educators. He was born in Union County, Kentucky, and spent his early school days at Springfield, Ohio, and later furnished his business course at the Bryan and Stratton School, Louisville, Kentucky. He then undertook the management of the business department of the Creighton University, Nebraska.

In the year 1885 Professor Buckman came to San Antonio, Texas and established the Alamo and San Antonio Business Colleges of which he was president and manager for 13 years, after which time, in company with his family, he spent a prolonged stay at Los Angeles, California.

In 1913, Professor Buckman returned to Texas and accepted the management of the business department of St. Mary's College at La Porte. Believing College Station to be an education center of promise, he opened the Bryan Business and Shorthand Training School where he worked with marked ability until the time of his death. Mr. Buckman, though unassuming in manner, readily found his way into the hearts of his students and will long be remembered by many as a sincere friend.

He is survived by his widow and three daughters: Marian, Teresa and Florence, all of whom were present at the bedside at the time of his death. Miss Marion, who is interested in the real estate business of L. D. White at Dallas, was called home on Tuesday of this week by the serious illness of her father.
